

Make a List – Ideas to inspire global curiosity

Interdependence and globalisation	Countries with direct flights to and from Australia
	Major exports and imports between Australia and a country of your choice
	Countries that receive the most overseas aid from the Australian government
	Staple foods
	Most recent natural disasters
	Ongoing armed conflicts
Identity and cultural diversity	Famous Australians who were born overseas
	Titles of religious leaders
	Famous non-European scientists through history
	Languages spoken in African nations
	Australians imprisoned overseas
Social justice and human rights	Female world leaders
	People or countries who were first at something
	People who have campaigned for their rights or the rights of others
	International human rights agreements that Australia has agreed to Books featuring discrimination against people as a theme
Peace building and conflict resolution	Nobel peace prize winners
	Peace monuments
	Peace organisations
	Companies that have signed up to codes of conduct to protect their worker's rights
	Movies not produced in Australia, England or the USA
Sustainable futures	Biodiversity hotspots
	Renewable energy sources
	Endangered species
	Inspiring inventions for a sustainable future
	Biggest contributors to landfill in Australia
	Ways to make the world a fairer place

Other 'Make a List' ideas from a 'Going Global from the Start' new graduates professional learning workshop

Where does your food come from?

How do you and your family save water?

Celebrations or important days shared in your family.

What foods can you grow in your area?

Local Aboriginal place names

Words from the local Aboriginal language

Countries where voting is compulsory

Uses for water in your daily life

Australian exports and imports

Languages spoken in Australia

Ways to make your home more sustainable

Man-made materials

Religions

Where do your clothes come from?

Name the primary industries of a country of your choice

Foods you ate today and where it came from

Chemicals used in food farming