

---

2020 SDG WEEKEND

CONNECTING PEOPLE AND PLANET WITH ACTIVE HOPE

FRI 24-SUN 26
JULY

---

Dwellingup's beautiful forest, 1.5 hours from Perth, allows reconnection with nature and each other, so needed at the beginning of this challenging decade. This workshop will encourage personal reflection and collaborative solutions that acknowledge the struggles and frustrations along with the power of collective action for climate and other concerns. Program will be from Friday evening to Sunday early afternoon.

As in 2019, the workshop will draw inspiration and fun from time together in the forest, and around the fire. It will include informed discussion, facilitated reflections and activities as well as opportunities to propose and begin concrete initiatives. What are your biggest challenges, inspirations, plans and activities for maintaining and inspiring hope, connection and change?!

COST $250 waged $150 volunteers/unwaged covering workshop, simple accommodation at Nanga Bush Camp and meals.

Limited numbers! To register go to trybooking

<https://www.trybooking.com/BIAWL>

Early Bird: pay by April 1 and pay $230 waged or $130 vols/unwaged

Enquiries email Drpeterdevereux@gmail.com

One World Centre, and the WA SDG Network are using the SDGs as an umbrella for personal and societal transformational change