

Going global from the start: A half-day workshop for new teaching graduates

Wednesday 3rd December, 2014: 9.30am-12.30pm
@ the One World Centre
5 King William Street Bayswater

How will your first classroom prepare students for life in an interconnected world?

- * Consider your own teaching philosophy and how this can help you support students to become active global citizens
- * Explore ideas about inclusive classrooms and think about how you might set yours up to give your students a voice
- * Explore the extensive collection of global education resources in the One World Centre Library
- * Take away ideas and resources to help you embed a global perspective in your classroom

Cost: $30

Places are limited. To register: email primaryed@oneworldcentre.org.au or phone 9371 9133.
