SOPHIE STEWART

Speaking on Social Reinvestment WA: Healthy Families, Smart Justice and Safe Communities

Sophie is a passionate young 22 year old working with Social Reinvestment WA (SRWA). Sophie will tell her own story of social and political engagement and explain the transformative and collaborative work of SRWA. SRWA is an Aboriginal led coalition of fifteen not-for-profits, working to reduce the disproportionate number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait islander people in our prison and criminal justice system here in WA.

This work links to SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOAL 10: Reduce inequality within and among countries. SRWA hopes to achieve parity in incarceration rates in a generation, by advocating for policies centred on healthy families, smart justice, and safe communities.
