JOIN US FOR A “30 +2” Year OWC Birthday Celebration: Stories from the past to light a way forward

It is often said that to know who you are you must understand where you come from. Well in 1985 Scott Christie and Joan Carlin started the One World Centre journey and tonight we celebrate the vision, the people and achievements in the 32 years past. See and hear from the workers and volunteers who have shaped the centre. Guaranteed to provide inspiration for what is possible, laughter and maybe a tear or two for those who have passed on. And what better way to share these stories than with a meal and a few drinks on a Friday night.

To be followed by the One World Centre Annual General Meeting at 8pm
