FOR IDEAS AND INSPIRATION ...

Women in Science: 50 fearless pioneers who changed the world by Rachel Ignofsky.

A gloriously illustrated celebration of trailblazing women. Highlights the contributions of fifty notable women to STEM fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics, from both the ancient and modern worlds. The book also contains fascinating infographics and illustrated scientific glossary. Women in Science celebrates the achievements of the intrepid women who have paved the way for the next generation of female engineers, biologists, mathematicians, doctors, astronauts, physicists and beyond ...

The Atlas of Women in the World by Joni Seager

A great resource that uses maps to show similarities and differences, continuities and contrasts among women around the world.

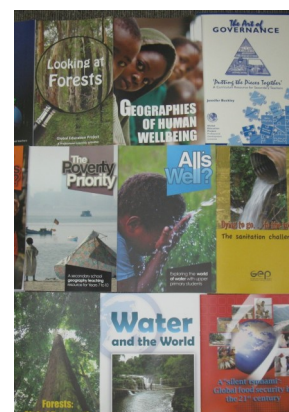

Among the key issues explored are those of: equality, motherhood, work, domestic violence, the change in households, beauty culture, communications, lesbian rights and government. The result is an invaluable resource on the status of women around the world today.
