Our DVD collection is growing...

We've added a whole lot of brand new DVDs to the collection including..Bikpela Bagarup (Big Damage) and Nyangamurta (Our Language)

Bikpela Bagarup reveals the human face of logging in Papua New Guinea as customary landowners are forced into signing documents they don't understand, for the promise of "development" – fresh water, health and education, but these essential services are rarely provided. Instead, their traditional hunting grounds are destroyed and their traditional way of life ruined forever. For More... <http://www.oneworldcentre.org.au/library/dvd-collection/>

An exciting new program with a focus on global citizenship and sustainability has just been introduced to the WA senior secondary curriculum!
