JOSEPHINE ZIMAMA

‘Creating healthy pathways for our youth’

Josephine is the Youth Director of the Organisation of African Communities (OAC) WA, among other voluntary roles including STOP the Violence Campaign launched through OAC and a train the trainer program for African youth. She is currently assisting with ‘Let’s Make it Happen’ program, a school-based mentoring program. Josephine will draw on her journey of growing up in Australia and issues she faced as a former refugee from South Sudan to share her passion for creating opportunities for empowering young people. “A lot of what I do involves supporting African initiatives that are built on encouraging African youth to develop skills and showcase their talents and create networks”.

It also demonstrates our commitment to advancing the Sustainable Development Goals (Goal 3: Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages).
