

Cultural and Creative Learning Opportunity

Message Stone Painting with Jade Dolman

Jade Dolman is a visual artist and remains connected to her culture through painting and family. She has a passion for making a change through art for Indigenous and non-Indigenous people.

Her purpose is to highlight that all land is traditional country which her ancestors have practiced culture on for thousands of years. Her murals and public art are a contemporary continuation of traditional culture.

J.D. Penangke is an Aboriginal-owned business run by Jade. The name J.D. Penangke comes from Jade Dolman's initials and Penangke (pronounced pen-ung-gah) is her skin name which she inherited from her Father's line. Jade is a Whadjuk/Balladong Nyoongar (Mother's side), Eastern Arrernte (Father's side) woman from Perth.

At this workshop Jade will share aspects of her culture and conduct an art workshop, that involves painting on rocks and wooden discs. Join us for a very enlightening and creative session with Jade.
