

THE TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATIONAL POWER OF SHARING NOONGAR LANGUAGE THROUGH SONG

ONE WORLD CENTRE AGM (5.30PM) WITH DINNER & SPEAKER KOBI MORRISON FROM 6PM

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 17, 2022

Kobi is a 28 year old bibbulmun noongar who was born and raised in Perth. While working at the UWA Centre of Social Impact and Propel Youth Arts WA, Kobi spends his spare time playing music, being involved in various music projects such as Koorlong, Koondarm, Madjitil Moorna and Endeavourous - projects that earned him the 2018 Perth NAIDOC Youth of the Year award.

See <https://madjitilmoorna.org.au/files/341221/koorlong-letter-to-teachers-junc2018-jr-latest.pdf>

COST by donation for delicious Mediterranean dinner
Funds raised go to support the One World Centre's Reconciliation Action Plan.

One World Centre 5 King William St Bayswater (next to train station!)

Register at <https://www.trybooking.com/CCBEV>

Australia's 2018 SDG report (VNR) had beautiful images by First Nations artist Jordana Angus. This is her symbol for SDG 4: Quality Education which she explains as: 'The larger 'U' shaped symbols represent elders sharing and passing down their knowledge to the next generation (symbolised by the smaller 'U' shaped symbols). The line work connecting them shows the transference of knowledge to all who wish to gain a quality education'.