

Global Cross Roads: opportunities for convergence between Australia's International Development Policy and volunteering

A fun afternoon of insights, information and interaction organised by Australian Volunteers Alumni and the One World Centre.

Program

2.30 to 3pm: Come and browse the Fairtrade Shop!

There is plenty to buy: chocolate, coffee, homewares, cards, clothing, gifts. Treat yourself!!!! Or maybe you'd like to become a volunteer???

3.00- 3.10 Welcome and Development Quiz Paddy Cullen

Presentations:

3:10 - 3:25 Dr Rochelle Spencer (Associate Professor, Development Studies and Sustainability, Indo-Pacific Research Centre) .Engaging with the new federal 2023 international development policy from a people to people focus.

3:25 - 3:40 Dr Peter Devereux (Senior lecturer at Murdoch University; Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences)) Volunteering and the SDGs.

3:40 - 3:55 Leigh Dix (AV Alumni Representative, WA) Volunteering programs and pathways

4 - 4:15 Q and A, and Future alumni initiatives (bi-monthly sharing; letting each other know about events; catching up generally).

Afternoon Tea

4:15 end of formal proceedings, but stay on and mingle.

4:30 CLOSE

All WA interested people and volunteer alumni are invited. Please feel free to bring a friend.

RSVP: owc@oneworldcentre.org.au or contact Leigh or Peter www.oneworldcentre.org.au/upcoming-workshops-and-events
owc@oneworldcentre.org.au or phone (08) 9371 913

EVENT INFORMATION

Date and Time

Saturday

27 July 2024

2.30 –4.30pm

Venue:

OWC

5 King William St, Bayswater

Streaming available

3-4 pm

THE GLOBAL GOALS
For Sustainable Development